14.12.08.01 Votes of Sympathy

Cllr. T McEllistrim extended his sympathy to the family of the late Tom ~~McEllistrim~~ Roundyq McEllistrim from Ballymacelligott who he said was one of the legends of Irish handball and won several All-Ireland titles.

Cllr. P McCarthy paid tribute to ~~Roundyq~~who won numerous competitions both in softball and hardball over a long and illustrious career.

Cllr. P Daly wished to be associated with the sentiments expressed by the previous speakers.

Cathaoirleach Cllr. J Finucane, on behalf of all the members wished to be associated with the expression of sympathy to the McEllistrim family.

Cllr. T McEllistrim also extended his sympathy to the family of the late Jackie Healy Rae former Member of Kerry County Council and Independent TD for South Kerry. He said that Jackie was a colleague of his when both of them were members of Dail Éireann.

All the members wished to be associated with the expression of sympathy to the Healy Rae family.

Cathaoirleach Cllr. J Finucane PROPOSED that the meeting be adjourned as a mark of respect to the late Jackie Healy Rae who was a former member of Kerry County Council and whose son Cllr. Danny Healy Rae and grandson Cllr. Johnny Healy Rae are currently members of the Council.

Cllr. P Daly SECONDED the proposal.

It was unanimously agreed that the adjourned meeting of the members of the Municipal District of Tralee would be held on Monday 5th January 2015 at 10.45am.

The meeting adjourned at 11.05am
